

Trading analysis and recommendations for March 21, 2018

The index of the Dollar Index points to a lack of momentum to reach 93 levels while gold remains strong at 1290 with positive signs supporting the upside
The previous data gives us a negative impression on the shape of the next move of the dollar in the face of other currency pairs and gold so we prefer to enter into transactions on the dollar pairs
Recommendations where the entry requirements are met today as follows

BUY FACEBOOK AT 165.50 SL 140.25 TP 185.19
